By Order of His Highness the Maharaja,

K. SRINIVASAN,
Chief Secretary to Government.

ORDER.

The High Court Judges (Part B States) Salaries and Allowances) Order, 1950.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 221 of the Constitution of India, as applied to the States in Part B of the First Schedule by clause (13) of Article 238 thereof, the President, after consultation with the Rajpramukhs, is pleased to make the following order :—

1. (1) This Order may be called the High Court Judges (Part B States) (Salaries and Allowances) Order, 1950.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 26th day of January, 1950.

2. In this Order,—

(a) "actual service,' includes—

(i) time spent by a Judge on duty as a judge or in the performance of such other functions as he may at the request of the President undertake to discharge;

(ii) vacations, excluding any time during which the Judge is absent on leave; and

(iii) joining time on transfer from a High Court to the Supreme Court or from one High Court to another;

(b) "Continuing judge" means a person who has become a judge of the High Court in a Part B State by virtue of the provisions of clause (2) of Article 376 of the Constitution;

(c) "Part B State" means a State specified in Part B of the First Schedule to the Constitution, other than the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

3. There shall be paid to every continuing Judge in respect of time spent on actual service salary at the same rate as was applicable to him immediately before the commencement of the Constitution in respect of time spent on actual service in the High Court for the corresponding Indian State, or at the rate of one thousand rupees per month, whichever is higher.

4. Every continuing Judge shall be entitled to receive such reasonable allowances to reimburse him for expenses incurred in travelling on duty within the territory of India, and shall be afforded such reasonable facilities in connection with the travelling, as may be prescribed by the President after consultation with the Rajpramukh, and until so prescribed, as may have been permissible to that Judge under the rules or orders of the corresponding Indian State in force immediately before the commencement of the Constitution.

5. The rights in respect of leave of absence (including leave allowances) and pension of every continuing Judge shall be governed by the provisions which immediately before the commencement of the Constitution were applicable to him as a Judge of the High Court in the corresponding Indian State.
